Purpose of the Code of Conduct

The Niagara Region is well respected by the general public, clients, employees, elected officials, suppliers, communities, and governments due to its excellent track record of ethical conduct and high integrity. The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to outline the responsibilities and procedures to be followed.

Scope of the Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct applies to every member of Council of Niagara Region. Members of Council are encouraged to discuss any situations of concern or doubt regarding the code with the Regional Chair. The Code of Conduct helps to ensure that the members of Regional Council share a common basis for acceptable conduct. These standards are designed to provide a reference guide and a supplement to the legislative parameters within which the members of Council must operate. These standards should serve to enhance public confidence that Regional Municipality of Niagara’s elected representatives operate from a base of integrity, justice and courtesy.

The Code of Conduct is a general standard that augments the provincial laws and Regional by-laws that govern the conduct. It is not intended to replace personal ethics.

They are expected to be mindful of the importance of their duties and responsibilities, to take into account the public character of their function and to conduct themselves in a way that maintains and promotes the public’s trust in the Regional Municipality of Niagara. All members of Council have a duty to act honestly, in good faith and in best interests of the Regional Municipality of Niagara.
