

How to Measure the Size of Waterlines

Cut out the tape measure if you need help determining service diameter.

To measure larger pipes, print a second diameter tape with 'Start At' set to highest point on first tape and overlap tapes to extend.

Lightly wet paper tape so it sticks to the pipe or tube.

Select 'Check Scale' to test printed scale against standard ruler.

Incoming water service measurement point

Various plumbing measurement points